Discover Longstones: Luxury Accommodation in the Heart of Avebury's World Heritage Site

Avebury, Wiltshire – Longstones is delighted to announce the opening of its exclusive collection of six luxury barns, offering guests an unparalleled blend of historic charm and modern comfort within the iconic Avebury landscape.

Nestled on a family-run farm amidst the rolling hills of Wiltshire, Longstones provides a unique retreat for those seeking both relaxation and adventure. Each barn has been meticulously designed to reflect the rich heritage of the area while providing contemporary amenities to ensure a memorable stay.

‘In an era where farms must adapt to remain sustainable, Longstones is a testament to the importance of diversification, allowing our family farm to continue thriving while sharing the beauty and heritage of Avebury with guests from around the world. Whether you’re a heritage enthusiast or a lover of luxury living, Longstones is designed for you’ said Ben Butler, owner of Longstones. ‘Our collection combines thoughtfully curated interiors with nods to the timeless landscape that surrounds us. After a day exploring and soaking up history, guests can head home to curl up in front of a cozy log-burner or stargaze the night away from their own private alfresco patio or hot tub’.

Located just a short walk from the fascinating Stone Circle, Silbury Hill and West Kennet Long Barrow, Longstones offers an ideal base for exploring the area’s rich history. Each barn has been thoughtfully named to anchor its location in this unique World Heritage Site.

Accommodation Highlights

Windmill Hill and Horslip: These spacious barns, accommodating up to four guests each, feature modern rustic and Scandinavian-inspired interiors.
